

STATE NEWS.

The Oshkosh Courier states that on Thursday last, as the freight train on the Northwestern Road, which left there at 8:45 A. M., was backing, up on a side track, at Neenah, to allow the morning train from Green Bay to pass, Geo. Potts, a young man from Oshkosh, who has for the past few months been employed by the road as brakeman, while on top of a car attending to his duty, by some means stumbled and fell between the cars, upon the track, and was run over, horribly mangled, and instantly killed. Ex-Governor Colas Bashford, whom Byron Kilbourn "propitiated" with $50,000 of La Crosse corruption bonds, is now in Arizona. The Mississippi is now open, and boats can run through to St. Paul without interruption. A barn owned by Mr. Cody, of Broadhead, was recently burned. The Broadhead Independent says that a religious interest, not usual in that community, has lately existed in the Congregational church in Broadhead, and has, as yet, not wholly subsided. The church for weeks has been crowded, both night and day, with citizens of all classes and ages, and many have arisen in tears, and declared their intention to live a Christian life, a life of devotion to Him, whose of right they are. The Madison Patriot says green baswood is selling at ten dollars a cord, and small cords at that. The Eau Claire Free Press states that the large mill at Chippewa Falls, under the direction and superintendence of Messrs. Pound & Halbert, resumed operations on Monday last, and under the new and valuable improvements it has undergone, it is expected to cut 100,000 feet, or one Chippewa raft per day. The firm contemplate running a large amount of its lumber to supply Southern markets. A new Episcopal church is to be commenced in Fond du Lac immediately. The Editor of the Chilton Times being in want of wood, his neighbors, numbering 50 or 60, assembled with their axes, and left him, before they got done, a wood pile which he says covers a quarter of an acre and will last two or three years. From an item in the Fond du Lac Weekly Commerce we learn that two cleanly, well behaved and intelligent looking German girls were lately refused admittance into a half filled "Ladies' Car," by a snob of a brakeman and turned into the gentleman's ear. The Commonwealth pertinently asks if the directors of this road allow such an unmanly and un-American discrimination. The Waupun Times says that the Good Templars and Sons of Temperance have resolved to hold monthly public meetings at the different churches in the village. The Berlin Courier states that winter wheat looks well in Green Lake County. We learn from the Telegraph that the crime of drunkenness is fearfully on the increase in the city of Kenosha, and several terrible scenes are cited to show that such is the case. We learn from the Prairie du Chien Standard Bearer, that Mr. Wright, who it will be remembered was kept in the Insane Asylum and from his premises at Prairie du Chien on account of alleged insanity has succeeded in getting the key to his premises at Prairie du Chien.

FROM LAKE SUPERIOR.—From the Marquette Journal of April 8th, we learn that the Pennington Railroad is making rapid progress, the engine now running twenty-five miles from Sand Point, and several miles more ready for the ties and rails. The line is to be opened by the 4th of July, when the telegraph will also be in operation. Preparations are making for connecting Green Bay with Sand Point, thus making all rail connection between Marquette and Milwaukee and Chicago.

THE DIVIDED DEMOCRACY.—Mr. Long did divide the Democrats sure enough. The New York World is sorry that the Philadelphia Age intends to play into the hands of the Republicans, by supporting their representation that the views of Messrs. Long and Harris are the views of the Democratic party, while Sam Medary's Crisis says: "The strength, and the only strength of the Democratic party form first to last, has been opposition to this war—unholy, barbarous and ruinous."

COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeit lives on the bank of Trumansburg, New York, are in circulation in this city. They have a head of cattle on the upper left hand corner, and farmers loading hay in the right lower; 5 in the other corners, with large red borders on the left and middle. The bill is pretty well executed, and is well calculated to deceive.

The number of dead in the National Cemetery at Gettysburg is said to be 3512. The highest amount of money found on any one person was thirty-six dollars. The various memoranda, diaries, etc., taken from the persons are under the charge of Mr. Daniel Weaver, the superintendent of removal. But two silver and one gold watches were found.

The election in Rhode Island is so close that the result may depend upon the vote of Block Island, which has not been heard from in fourteen days. The majority of Gov. Smith in the rest of the State is about 50.

A new religious sect, called "Comedians," has broken out in Pleasant Valley, Connecticut. Their belief is "perfect life, the only passport to immortality." The members generally consider themselves "elected."

Freedom for the F. F. V's.

The Richmond Whig winds up an article by assuring the people of the South that his Satanic Majesty will not harm so able a confederator as we are, and that turning from us, Old Nick will order rooms for Lincoln, Seward and Butler with fresh beds of live coals! This is the rub. We have kept the furnaces of rebels rather hot for comfort during the past three years. We are fully compensated to know that we have made the rebels feel the effects of our blows. Butler's masterly management of the she devils at New Orleans, has excited their anger against him. Seward's superior diplomatic abilities and successful management of England and France, the rebel leaders can never forgive. But why the editor of the Richmond organ should be angry with Lincoln, we are at a loss to know. Lincoln's Emancipation proclamation liberates half a dozen of that editor's children, whose several mothers are American ladies of African descent! Lincoln should be looked upon by that editor, and by thousands of other Southern parents, as a benefactor! He is setting their mixed-blood offspring at liberty, a thing they could not do, as they are slaves, and many of their fathers are not able to purchase their freedom!

W. G. BROWSLER, Editor of the Rebel Ventilator.

FUNERAL OF HON. JOHN C. RIVES.—The Washington Star of Wednesday says: The funeral of the late John C. Rives took place at noon to-day, from his late residence, near Bladensburg, and was attended by an immense concourse of persons, among whom were many prominent officials, members of Congress, &c. The corpse, which had been embalmed by Dr. Holmes, looked very natural, and was attired in a plain black suit. The coffin was of fine mahogany, covered with black cloth, furnished with plain but heavy silver mountings, and a silver plate on the top bearing the name and age of the deceased. On the coffin was placed a handsome wreath of flowers.

The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Dr. Pinkney, of the Church of the Ascension, (Episcopal), and Rev. Dr. Smith, of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, of this city, after which the corpse was placed in the hearse, the following acting as pall-bearers: George W. Riggs, Esq.; Hon. Jacob Collamer, Senator from Vermont; Hon. Justin S. Morrill, Representative from Vermont; Michael Canton Esq., connected with the Globe for many years past; Francis P. Blair, Esq., formerly the partner of Mr. Rives; Lambert S. Tree, Esq., of the city; John L. Powell, Senator from Kentucky; Hon. Robert Hunter, Representative from Kentucky; and the cortege, composed of an immense number of soldiers, proceeded to Congressional Cemetery.

At the Government Printing Office, the cortege was joined by the Columbia Typographical Society and Bookbinders' Association, which followed the remains to the cemetery.

The Franklin engine-house bell, and other bells, were tolled during the day as a mark of respect for the deceased, and both Houses of Congress adjourned over for the same cause.

HOW QUOTAS ARE DETERMINED.—A circular order from Provost Marshal General Fry announces that the muster-in of enlisted veterans is made in the field, by the regimental and company officers, and United States Commissary of Masters, under the direction of the Adjutant General of the Army. The muster-rolls are made, signed, and certified by the regimental and company officers, and United States Commissary of Masters. These rolls belong to and are filed in the Adjutant General's department of the army. All questions, propositions, or inquiries in regard to them should be presented to the Adjutant General, and not to the Provost Marshal General. The credits for re-enlisted veterans are made up by the Adjutant General, from the muster rolls above referred to, and when so made up the numbers to be credited, and the places to which they are to be credited, are reported by the Adjutant General of the Army to the Provost Marshal General, to be deducted from the quotas for the draft.

THE ORIGINAL COPPERHEAD.—As the cleverness of the Copperheads at crawling, change of base, and blowing hot and cold in the same breath, is just now attracting public attention, it may not be amiss to show that this cleverness is not only without precedent, but natural to the species. A friend has kindly furnished us with an extract from Hazard's Penny-Savvy Register for August, 1831, which sheds abundant light upon the matter. Here it is:

"The Lebanon Beehunter of last week states that a snake of the Copperhead species was killed on the plantation of Christian Strook, Esq., about two feet long, having a head on either end of its body, which enabled it to advance or recede at will."

ROUGH JOKE AT KENTUCKY'S EXPENSE.—About the richest joke of the season of a Kentucky origin is one that came to our knowledge a few days ago. The Sergeant-Major of the 14th U. S. Colored Troops is a "white nigger," and no one would suspect him as being "dyed in the wool" arriving in Louisville last week from a leave of absence, Colonel Bruce's energetic officials at Louisville placed thirty-eight white soldiers under his control, with orders to leave for the front. Among the soldiers were some Kentuckians, the officer saw the sergeant's furlough and knew that he was of the colored regiment, but did not know that he was a "nigger." The sergeant delivered his charge all safe.—Chattanooga Gazette.

A BUTTER LEAGUE has been formed in the 15th ward, Philadelphia. The members have resolved not to buy butter for the present at any rate. A farmer who usually supplies that section came to town with 100 pounds, and returned in the evening with 98 pounds, his customers refusing to take it.

MANY of our wounded from the Red River army have arrived at New Orleans and Vicksburg. They state that the recent engagements resulted in a complete defeat of the Union forces, General Smith succeeding only in saving Banks' army from complete destruction.

COL. E. L. BUTTRICK, of Milwaukee, has been appointed Provost Marshal for the First Congressional District. A first rate appointment.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—$27,000 STOLEN BY AN EXPRESS DRIVER.—One of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated in this country was committed yesterday morning by the driver of the United States Express wagon in this city. A young man named S. G. Haggerty has been in the employ of the company at this place for the last six weeks. Yesterday morning, as usual, he was sent out with his wagon to deliver the express packages which had arrived on Saturday night. In the lot there were three packages of money to the amount of $27,000—one addressed to Captain Rufus Ford, superintendent of the St. Joseph and Omaha packet line, containing $25,000; the other two had small sums, in the aggregate about $300. The driver did not return to office at noon, and the agent soon after started to look for him. Not finding him anywhere in the city limits, he at once secured the services of the detective police, who were soon upon his track, and in a little while discovered the horse and wagon secreted in the brush about three miles above town, but the driver and money had disappeared. The police are in eager pursuit, but as yet no clue has been obtained as to the course taken by the robber.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.

A VERY STRANGE OCCURRENCE.—ALEX. SPEACER SHOT.—We are informed by a gentleman from Madison, that last week Alex. Spencer, who enlisted in the 2d Wisconsin regiment, lost the forefinger of his right hand by a pistol shot. Alex stated that while in the vicinity of the camp at Madison, he espied in a clump of bushes a man "unwilling to the description of the murderer of Mr. Grant," and that while endeavoring to arrest him, he was shot, the ball entering the finger on the inside and passing through, hearing it terribly. The statement of Mr. Spencer, as well as the manner in which he was shot is, to say the least, remarkable.—Beaumont Journal.

DESERTER CAUGHT.—Deputy Provost Marshal Nichols, of this city, arrested in Beaver Dam last Saturday night, a deserter named John N. Austin. As we understand it, Austin was drafted in Binghamton, Broome county, N. Y., about a year ago, and never reported. He came west, and has been working a good share of the time in Beaver Dam and at this place. By some sort of means, known only to keen-eyed officers and detectives, Austin's whereabouts became known, and when the sign was right he was quietly nabbed.—Waterson Republican.

—During the quarter just closed, the number of three cents stamps sold in the New York post office was two millions and five hundred thousand, an increase of one million on the returns of the previous quarter. The business of the office in all its departments has increased in a similar proportion. Among the numerous articles awaiting their owners at the office are black silk aprons, woolen shirts, and bundles of tobacco.

—Mr. Stansfield M. P. has resigned his seat in the British Cabinet, in consequence of the French official repetition of his complicity with Mazzini and Greece in the conspiracy against Napoleon's life. Lord Palmerston speaking on the subject, said that the "personal" and "dynastic safety" of Napoleon were essential to the best interest of Europe.

THE OSHKOSH AND GREEN BAY BOATS.—Friend White, the agent of the Oshkosh & Green Bay line of boats, informs us that the Bay City left Menasha for Green Bay on Wednesday last, and the Fountain City is ready to commence trips, and that both of these boats will, probably, arrive here to-day. The ice in Lake Winnebago has nearly vanished, and by next Monday navigation will be unobstructed.—Oshkosh Courier.

GOING TO IDAHO.—Mr. Wm. Brisbois and Bro. are perfecting their arrangements for the overland trip to Idaho. They go with ox teams and will carry all their provisions for the trip, and enough to last some time after arriving at the mines. They are equal to the undertaking. They start next month.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

AWAY FOR IDAHO.—Six teams with about twenty horses passed through this place yesterday on their way to Idaho.—We noticed in most of the wagons the smiling faces of well-dressed cleanly children.

Some of our own citizens are preparing in hot haste for the same destination and will start either to-day or to-morrow.—Columbus (Wis) Journal.

RAITS COMING DOWN.—On Tuesday last the first raft of the season from the Wisconsin pineries, passed by this town. This is some later, we believe, than usual. We are informed that an unusual large quantity of lumber will be run this season.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SCHILLER'S SONG OF THE BELL.—We understand that the Musical Union of this City will soon give the public an opportunity of hearing this beautiful as well as intricate composition of Ronsborg's. Particulars of the concert will soon be given.

If you wish to purchase any fruit trees or ornamental shrubbery go to London's nursery, where Frank will be ready to greet you with his smiling face and sell you anything in his line at fair prices. He has a large assortment to select from, and of the best varieties that are acclimated to this locality. A word to the wise is sufficient.

MILINERY GOODS.—We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mrs. Thornton and Miss Reynolds in another column, they have opened at their establishment, at the west end of the upper bridge, a choice and extensive stock of millinery goods, which will naturally attract the attention of the ladies, who will, of course, take the first opportunity to examine them.

PROF. MARTINE'S DANCING SCHOOL.—The success which attends the efforts of Prof. Martine in getting up a dancing school at the Hyatt House Hall, is exceedingly gratifying, and his class bids fair to be a large one. Those who have any idea of taking a course of lessons should join the class at once. He has a session this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and another this evening at half past seven.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?—We understand that some of the graves in the vicinity of the high school from which the bodies were taken when the cemetery was removed, have never been filled and are therefore in a dangerous condition. Only a few days since a lad playing ball on the ground stumbled and pitching head first into one of these pitfalls, broke his shoulder blade. It should be some one's duty to see that the surroundings of the high school are put in a safe condition, if they are not so now.

SIBBS ABANDONED.—The steers of Mobile has been abandoned, and most of the gun and mortar boats have been sent to Pensacola, leaving only a few blockaders off the harbor. The rebel obstructions in the harbor rendered it impossible for Admiral Farragut to capture the place in New Orleans fashion, without the aid of iron clads to protect our gunboats from the rebel rams. It is also established that it is necessary to have the co-operation of a land force from the rear, and the failure of Gen. Sherman's expedition rendered it useless for the fleet to remain any longer.

DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR.—Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, and one of the ablest operators in this country will again visit Janesville for three days on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12th, 13th, and 14th. Office at the Hyatt House.

The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the doctor's practice is that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

Things to be Remembered.

First, That it is a positive business necessity to have your buildings, merchandise and other personal property insured against fire.

Second, That E. L. Dimock now has the agency of nearly all the Sound Old Eastern Insurance Companies that are represented in the west, and that the capital represented by these companies is sufficient to do all the insurance for Janesville and Rock County.

Third, That these companies are noted for adjusting losses fairly and paying them promptly.

Fourth, That E. L. Dimock has left a few more of those beautiful calendars for 1864, blotting pads and excise laws for distribution to customers.

COAL.—I have made permanent arrangements with Mr. Robert Law of Chicago, agent of several of the most extensive coal mines in the United States, and much the largest coal dealer in the northwest, to furnish a full supply of the best qualities of coal for Janesville and vicinity. In the course of a short time I shall be ready to make contracts for any amount at the lowest possible figures.

April 23d and 24th.

TO MERCHANTS, MILLERS AND OTHER SHIPPERS.—I am now prepared to make season contracts for Lake Insurance in the old companies at best rates.

April 23d and 24th.

FOR COLLAR LOST.—A lady lost on the street on Wednesday evening, a mink fur collar. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at the store of McKee & Bros.

April 23d.

It is at all times important to insure with Old Companies. Now it is especially so, we know not what a day may bring forth in the financial world. Keep in the old paths.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Gazette.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 24.—The steamer Moonlight has arrived from Newbern. No news of importance. The powder mills at Raleigh, North Carolina, exploded on the 5th, killing several persons.

General Wm. P. White of Georgetown, South Carolina, was assassinated by his own men.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—House.—The House went into committee of the whole on the internal revenue bill. An amendment was offered, which was rejected, imposing a tax of 4 per cent, instead of 21 on gains, profits and income, which shall be deducted from the interest notes, bonds, or securities of U. S. Military offered another amendment which was adopted, that incomes derived from the interest of note, bond or other securities of the United States, shall be included in the estimate of income under this section which places the duty at 5 per cent, on all over six hundred dollars.

SENATE.—Hale introduced a bill to amend an act to promote efficiency of the navy was referred to naval committee. Wilson submitted the resolution for appropriating seventy-five millions for pay and subsistence of the militia to be called out by the President. Referred to military committee. House bill to establish postal money order system taken up.

FROM ARKANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—Little Rock dates say Mr. Allis of Jefferson Co. is elected speaker of the Arkansas legislature. Mr. Carson, member of the house and recently captured by guerrillas, and escaped, has arrived at Little Rock. The legislature will immediately provide for the organization of State Militia, raising revenue and adopt measures to render it impossible for rebels to grasp the reins of government.

FROM RED RIVER.

CAIRO, April 25.—Among the Western troops in the hottest of the recent battles on Red River were the 130th, 17th, 16th and 11th Illinois, the 14th and 15th Iowa, and the 23d Wisconsin. Some of these regiments suffered heavily.

Wounded men in hospital at Mound City declare that our Quartermaster at Fort Pillow, after the surrender, was nailed to the side of a building by the rebel savages, and burned to death. Adjutant Leaning was shot after the surrender. His life was saved only by giving a Masonic sign to a rebel surgeon. His sister, Mrs. B. F. Taylor, of Chicago, is attending him. He is recovering, though his wound is serious.

Waide and Gooch of the committee on the conduct of the war, arrived at Cairo on the 21st to investigate the Fort Pillow massacre. General Halbert, Cheatham and Leggett are also there.

Nearly 2000 bales of cotton arrived at Cairo on the 22d; about 1000 of it for Cincinnati, 400 for Louisville and 280 for Evansville.

FROM WEST TENNESSEE.

ST. LOUIS, April 26th.—Memphis dates of the 22d states Forrest's entire forces moving toward Alabama, followed by Grierson. Pold is said to be marching with Forrest, he will probably join on the morning of the 21st. Grierson's cavalry came upon some of Forrest's troops near Hudson, Miss. A sharp fight ensued, the rebels retreating in the direction of Jackson, passing through Lagrange. A number of prisoners, horses, mules and wagons, were captured and taken to Memphis. Cotton market firm. Holders receiving back for higher prices. Receipt 160 bales. Prices range from 64 to 67. Steamer Idaho came in collision with a gunboat and sunk at Paducah on Friday, she can be raised. About 100 guerrillas burned a large lot of wood near Barfield Point on Friday, and captured a number of citizens of Brownville.

FURTHER FROM NEWBERN.

NEWBERN, N. C., April 22, 1864.—The battle which had been going on at Plymouth since Sunday, 18th to the 20th, resulted in the capturing of the city by the enemy on Wednesday noon, including Gen. Wessell and his forces of 1,500 men.

The enemy obtained possession of the town at 8 o'clock in the morning. Gen. Wessell and his troops retired into Fort William and held out until noon, repulsing the enemy in nine desperate assaults, whose loss is 1,700, while our loss is slight. Gen. Wessell, who gained such distinction in the Seven Days' fight before Richmond, has made in the siege most brave resistance with his little band of veterans.

Several weeks since he called for 5,000 men, stating in a most solemn manner that it would be impossible to hold the city with a less number.

It is reported that the enemy has left Plymouth and is now moving on Washington; also on this city.

The rebel ram Atkinson, on the Nense, has, it is ascertained, moved towards Newbern, and is expected to make an attack in a day or two more.

Gunboats and reinforcements are immediately required here and at Washington. Two companies, belonging to the 2d North Carolina (Union) volunteers, were among the captured at Plymouth, most of whom were taken out and shot by the enemy after our forces had surrendered.

All the negroes found in uniform were also shot.

The funeral of Gen. Flessor takes place to-morrow.

The rebel ram at Plymouth which came down the Roanoke, is expected to not in concert with the other rams in the attack on Washington and Newbern. She carries three small guns and one 64-pounder. With the aid of a few gunboats these rams could be readily run down as their sea going qualities are bad. Under the cover of night the ram at Plymouth swamped two of our gunboats, but it is not expected she will attack any respectable number of gunboats in the day time.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The heavy rain of last night retards military operations. The navy department is trying to recover the ground lost at Plymouth and the rebel ram will be attended to. A rebel spy in Baltimore has been sentenced to be hung.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 25, 1864.—On the 21st of April, the Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin submitted to the President of the United States a proposition to furnish volunteers from their respective States for the coming campaign:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, April 21, 1864.

To the President of the United States:

First, The Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, and Wisconsin offer to the President infantry troops for the approaching campaign.

Second, The term of service to be an hundred days, reckoning from the date of muster into the service of the United States, unless sooner discharged.

Third, The troops to be mustered into the service of the United States by regiments, when the regiments are filled up according to regulations to the minimum strength. The regiments to be organized according to the regulations of the War Department. The whole number to be furnished within twenty days from date of notice of the acceptance of this proposition.

Fourth, The troops to be clothed, armed, equipped, subsisted, transported and paid as other United States infantry volunteers, and to serve in fortifications or wherever their services may be required, within or without their respective States.

Fifth, No bounty to be paid the troops, nor the service charged or credited on any draft.

Sixth, The draft for three years' service to go on in any State or district where the quota is not filled up; but if an officer or soldier in the special service should be drafted, he shall be credited for the service rendered. (Signed)

JOHN BRADY, Governor of Ohio.
O. H. MONROE, Governor of Indiana.
RICHARD YATES, Governor of Illinois.
W. M. STROM, Governor of Iowa.

The foregoing proposition of the Governors is accepted, and the Secretary of War is directed to carry it into execution. (Signed) A. LINCOLN.

April 23, 1864.

[It will be observed that the name of Governor Lewis of this State, is not attached to the above tender of troops, whether accidental or intentional, does not appear. Gov. Lewis was present at the conference of the Governors with the President, and it was understood he approved of, and was ready to co-operate in the movement.]

MARRIED.

In Allion, on the morning of April 20th, 1864, by Rev. Mr. Edwards, 1st, Mr. WILLARD WOODS, of Janesville, Rock County, and Miss HARRIET M. EDWARDS, daughter of Paul S. and Susan Edwards, of Allion, Wis.

DIED.

On the 15th inst., suddenly, at Union Place Hotel, New York City, of disease of the heart, D. L. HARTWICK, Esq., (of the firm of Constock & Hartwick), aged 72 years.

Mr. Hartwick, when a boy, lived in this city. But some years since he went to New York. After having gone through a course of legal studies, he was admitted to practice in all the Courts. Without friends or money, but with good abilities and temperate habits, with industry and perseverance—full of courage and high hope, he relied on his own talents and money both grew plenty. Just as his rugged pathway, which had been beset with so many embarrassments and obstacles, was growing more smooth and pleasant—just as the clouds which had lowered over him had one by one disappeared, and the future was gleaming with the sunshine of prosperity—in apparent health, surrounded by those who loved and esteemed him, Death claimed him for a victim, and almost without warning his heart grew cold and his spirit passed to the Land of the Hereafter. We have known him from early childhood, and watched his course with interest. He was a kind and dutiful son, an affectionate brother, a good friend, and a sociable companion. As we have rejoiced in his success, we now mourn with those who weep over his grave.

STATE NEWS.

The Oshkosh Courier states that on Thursday last, as the freight train on the Northwestern Road, which left there at 8:45 A. M., was backing up on a side track, at Neenah, to allow the morning train from Green Bay to pass, Geo. Potts, a young man from Oshkosh, who has for the past few months been employed by the road as brakeman, while on top of a car attending to his duty, by some means stumbled and fell between the cars, upon the track, and was run over, horribly mangled, and instantly killed. Ex-Governor Coles Bashford, whom Byron Kilbourn "propitiated" with $50,000 of La Crosse corruption bonds, is now in Arizona. The Mississippi is now open, and boats can run through to St. Paul without interruption. A barn owned by Mr. Cody, of Brodhead, was recently burned. The Brodhead Independent says that a religious interest, not usual in that community, has lately existed in the Congregational church in Brodhead, and has, as yet, not wholly subsided. The church for weeks has been crowded, both night and day, with citizens of all classes and ages, and many have arisen in tears, and declared their intention to live a Christian life, a life of devotion to Him whose of right they are. The Madison Patriot says green basswood is selling at ten dollars a cord, and small cords at that. The Eau Claire Free Press states that the large mill at Chippewa Falls, under the direction and superintendence of Messrs. Pound & Halbur, resumed operations on Monday last, and under the new and valuable improvements it has undergone, it is expected to cut 100,000 feet, or one Chippewa raft per day. The firm contemplates running a large amount of its lumber to supply Southern markets. A new Episcopal church is to be commenced in Fond du Lac immediately. The Editor of the Chilton Times being in want of wood, his neighbors, numbering 50 or 60, assembled with their axes, and left him, before they got done, a wood pile which he says covers a quarter of an acre and will last two or three years. From an item in the Fond du Lac Weekly Commonwealth we learn that two cleanly, well behaved and intelligent looking German girls were lately refused admittance into a half-filled "Ladies' Car," by a snob of a brakeman and turned into the gentleman's car. The Commonwealth pertinently asks if the directors of this road allow such an unmanly and un-American discrimination. The Wauson Times says that the Good Templars and Sons of Temperance have resolved to hold monthly public meetings at the different churches in the village. The Berlin Courier states that winter wheat looks well in Green Lake County. We learn from the Telegraph that the crime of drunkenness is fearfully on the increase in the city of Kenosha, and several terrible scenes are cited to show that such is the case. We learn from the Prairie du Chien Standard Dealer, that Mr. Wright, who it will be remembered was kept in the Insane Asylum on account of alleged insanity, has succeeded in getting the key to his premises at Prairie du Chien.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The heavy rain of last night retards military operations. The navy department is trying to recover the ground lost at Plymouth and the rebel ram will be attended to. A rebel spy in Baltimore has been sentenced to be hung.
 FROM WASHINGTON.
 WASHINGTON, April 25, 1864.—On the 21st of April, the Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin submitted to the President of the United States a proposition to furnish volunteers from their respective States for the coming campaign.
 WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, April 21, 1864.
 To the President of the United States:
 The Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, and Wisconsin offer to the President infantry troops for the approaching campaign.
 SECOND.—The term of service to be an hundred days, reckoning from the date of muster into the service of the United States, unless sooner discharged.
 THIRD.—The troops to be mustered into the service of the United States by regiments, when the regiments are filled up according to regulations to the minimum strength. The regiments to be organized according to the regulations of the War Department. The whole number to be furnished within twenty days from date of notice of the acceptance of this proposition.
 FOURTH.—The troops to be clothed, armed, equipped, subsisted, transported and paid as other United States infantry volunteers, and to serve in fortifications or wherever their services may be required, within or without their respective States.
 FIFTH.—No bounty to be paid the troops, nor the service charged or credited on any draft.
 SIXTH.—The draft for three years' service to go on in any State or district where the quota is not filled up; but if an officer or soldier in the special service should be drafted, he shall be credited for the service rendered.
 (Signed)
 JOHN BROOD, Governor of Ohio.
 R. H. MORRIS, Governor of Indiana.
 RICHARD YATES, Governor of Illinois.
 W. M. STORZ, Governor of Iowa.
 The foregoing proposition of the Governors is accepted, and the Secretary of War is directed to carry it into execution.
 (Signed) A. LINCOLN.
 April 23, 1864.
 [It will be observed that the name of Governor Lewis of this State, is not attached to the above tender of troops, whether accidental or intentional, does not appear. Gov. Lewis was present at the conference of the Governors with the President, and it was understood he approved of, and was ready to co-operate in the movement.]

MARRIED.

In Alton, on the morning of April 20th, 1864, by Rev. J. A. Edwards, Esq., Mr. WILLIAM WOODCOCK, of Janesville, Rock County, and Miss HARRIET M. EDWARDS, daughter of Paul S. and Susan Edwards, of Alton, Wis.

DIED.

On the 15th inst., suddenly, at Union Place Hotel, New York City, of disease of the heart, D. L. HART, Esq., (of the firm of Condit & Hartwick), aged 39 years.
 Mr. Hartwick, when a boy, lived in this city. But some years since he went to New York. After having gone through a course of legal studies, he was admitted to practice in all the Courts. Without friends or money, but with good abilities and temperate habits, with industry and perseverance—full of courage and high hope, he relied on his own strength and money both given plenty. Just as his rugged pathway, which had been beset with so many embarrassments and plagues—just as the clouds were gathering, and the future was filled with the sun of promise—his apparent health, surrounded by those who loved and esteemed him, Death claimed him for a victim, and almost without warning his heart grew cold and his spirit passed to the Land of the Hereafter. We have known him from early childhood, and watched his course with interest. He was a kind and dutiful son, an affectionate brother, a good friend, and a sociable companion. As we have rejoiced in his success, we now mourn with those who weep over his grave.

Freedom for the F. F. V's.

The Richmond Whig winds up an article by assuring the people of the South that his Majesty will not harm so able a subject as we are, and that turning the Old Nick will order round Lincoln, Seward and Butler with fresh beds of live coals! This is the rub. We have kept the furnaces of rebels, rather than comfort during the past three years. We are fully compensated to know that we have made the rebels feel the effects of our blows. Butler's masterly management of the she devils at New Orleans, has excited their anger against him. Seward's superior diplomatic abilities and successful management of England and France, the rebel leaders can never forgive. But why the editor of the Richmond organ should be angry with Lincoln, we are at loss to know. Lincoln's Emancipation proclamation liberates half a dozen of that editor's children, whereas several mothers are American ladies of African descent! Lincoln should be looked upon by the editor, and by thousands of other Southern parents, as a benefactor! He is setting their mixed-blood offspring at liberty, a thing they could not do, as they are slaves, and many of their fathers—this Richmond editor among the rest—are not able to purchase their freedom!

FUNERAL OF HON. JOHN C. RIVES.

The Washington Star of Wednesday says:—The funeral of the late John C. Rives took place at noon to-day, from his late residence, near Bladensburg, and was attended by an immense concourse of persons, among whom were many prominent officials, members of Congress, &c.
 The corpse, which had been embalmed by Dr. Holmes, looked very natural, and was attired in a plain black suit. The coffin was of fine mahogany, covered with black cloth, furnished with plain but heavy silver mountings, and a silver plate on top bearing the name and age of the deceased. On the coffin was placed a handsome wreath of flowers.
 The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Dr. Pinkney, of the Church of the Ascension, (Episcopal), and Rev. Dr. Smith, of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, of this city, after which the corpse was placed in the hearse, the following acting as pallbearers: George W. Riggs, Esq.; Hon. Jacob Collamer, Senator from Vermont; Hon. Justin S. Morrill, Representative from Vermont; Michael Catton Esq., connected with the Globe for many years past; Francis P. Blair, Esq., formerly the partner of Mr. Rives; Lambert S. Tree, Esq., of the city post-office; Hon. L. Powell, Senator from Kentucky; Hon. Robert Mallory, Representative from Kentucky; and the cortege, composed of an immense number of carriages, proceeded to Congressional Cemetery.
 At the Government Printing Office the cortege was joined by the Columbia Typographical Society and Bookbinders' Association, which followed the remains to the cemetery.
 The Franklin engine-house bell, and other bells, were tolled during the day as a mark of respect for the deceased, and both Houses of Congress adjourned over for the same cause.

HOW QUOTAS ARE DETERMINED.

A circular order from Provost Marshal General Fry announces that the muster-in of recruited veterans is made in the field, by the regimental and company officers, and United States Commissary of Masters, under the direction of the Adjutant General of the Army. The muster-in-rolls are made, signed, and certified by the regimental and company officers, and United States Commissary of Masters. These rolls belong to and are filed in the Adjutant General's department of the army. All questions, propositions, or inquiries in regard to them should be presented to the Adjutant General, and not to the Provost Marshal General. The credits for recruited veterans are made up by the Adjutant General, from the muster rolls above referred to, and are made up the adjutant to be edited and the places to which they are to be credited, are reported by the Adjutant General of the Army to the Provost Marshal General, to be deducted from the quotas for the draft.

THE ORIGINAL COPPERHEAD.

As the cleverness of the Copperheads at crafty change of base, and blowing hot and cold in the same breath, is just now attracting public attention, it may not be amiss to show that this cleverness is not only without precedent, but natural to the species. A friend has kindly furnished us with an extract from Hazard's Pennsylvania Register for August, 1831, which sheds abundant light upon the matter. Here it is:
 "The Lebanon Beekeeper of last week states that a snake of the Copperhead species was killed on the plantation of Christian Strook, Esq., about two feet long, having a head on either end of its body, which enabled it to advance or recede at will."

ROUCH JOKE AT KENTUCKY'S EXPENSE.

About the richest joke of the season of a Kentucky origin is one that came to our knowledge a few days ago. The Sergeant-Major of the 14th U. S. Colored Troops is a "white nigger," and no one would suspect him as being "dyed in the wool," arriving in Louisville last week from a leave of absence, Colonel Bruce's energetic officials at Louisville placed thirty-eight white soldiers under his control, with orders to serve for the front. Among the soldiers were some Kentuckians, the officers saw the sergeant's furrow and knew that he was of the colored regiment, but did not know that he was a "nigger." The sergeant delivered his charge all safe.—Chattanooga Gazette.

A BUTTER LEAGUE HAS BEEN FORMED IN THE 15th ward, Philadelphia.

The members have resolved not to buy butter for the present at any rate. A farmer who usually supplies that section came to town with 100 pounds, and returned in the evening with 98 pounds, his customers refusing to take it.

MAJORITY OF OUR WOUNDED FROM THE RED RIVER ARMY HAVE ARRIVED AT NEW ORLEANS AND VICKSBURG.

They state that the recent engagements resulted in a complete defeat of the Union forces, General Smith succeeding only in saving Banks' army from complete destruction.

CON. E. L. BUTTRICK, of Milwaukee, has been appointed Provost Marshal for the First Congressional District. A first rate appointment.

PLEASANT PARAGRAPHS.

Curiosity.—Looking over the affairs of others, and over-looking your own.
 Punch teaches book-keeping in one lesson of three words, "never lend them."
 What word would give sorrow to the mechanic and joy to the prisoner? Discharged.
 Let some ingenious quibbler explain how a letter written by an officer can be a private letter.
 What tables are most used throughout the world? Vegetable, sea-tables and constables.
 Yankee Notions says the language of an Arabian child speaks before its teeth is gum-Arabic, unquestionably.
 The marriage of John Sweet and Ann Sour, down east, suggests the lemonade business.
 You're a queer chicken, as the hen said when she hatched a duck.

A BOLD ROMANCE—$27,000 STOLEN BY AN EXPRESS DRIVER.

One of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated in this country was committed yesterday morning by the driver of the United States Express wagon in this city. A young man named S. C. Haggerty has been in the employ of the company at this place for the last six weeks. Yesterday morning, as usual, he was sent out with his wagon to deliver the express packages which had arrived on Saturday night. In the lot there were three packages of money to the amount of $27,000, one addressed to Captain Rufus Ford, superintendent of the St. Joseph and Omaha packet line, containing $26,000; the other two had small sums, in the aggregate about $300. The driver did not return at noon, and the company soon after started to look for him. Not finding him anywhere in the city limits, he at once secured the services of the detective police, who were soon upon his track, and in a little while discovered the horse and wagon scattered in the brush about three miles above town, but the driver and money had disappeared. The police are in eager pursuit, but as yet no clue has been obtained as to the course taken by the robber.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.

A VERY STRANGE OCCURRENCE—ALEX. SPENCER STOLEN.

We are informed by a gentleman from Madison, that last week Alex. Spencer, who enlisted in the 2d Wisconsin regiment, lost the forefinger of his right hand by a pistol shot. Alex. stated that while in the vicinity of the camp at Madison, he espied in a clump of bushes a man "answering to the description of the murderer of Mr. Grant," and that while endeavoring to arrest him, he was shot, the ball entering the finger on the inside and passing through, lacerating it terribly. The statement of Mr. Spencer, as well as the manner in which he was shot is, to say the least, remarkable.—Belt Journal.

DESERTER CAUGHT—DEPUTY PROVOST MARSHAL NICHOLS OF THIS CITY, ARRESTED IN BEAVER DAM LAST SATURDAY NIGHT, A DESERTER NAMED JOHN X. AUSTIN.

As we understand it, Austin was drafted in Binghamton, Broome county, N. Y., about a year ago, and never reported. He came west, and has been working a good share of the time in Beaver Dam and at this place. By some sort of means, known only to keen-eyed officers and detectives, Austin's whereabouts became known, and when the sign was right he was quietly nabbed.—Watertown Republican.

During the quarter just closed, the number of three cents stamps sold in the New York post office was two millions and five hundred thousand, an increase of one million on the returns of the previous quarter.

The business of the office in all its departments has increased in a similar proportion. Among the numerous articles awaiting their owners at the office are black silk aprons, woolen shirts, and bundles of tobacco.

Mr. Stansfield M. P. has resigned his seat in the British Cabinet, in consequence of the French official repetition of his complicity with Mazzini and Greece in the conspiracy against Napoleon's life.

Lord Palmerston speaking on the subject, says that the "personal" and "dynastic safety" of Napoleon were essential to the best interest of Europe.

QUESTIONS FOR DEBATE.—If the traveler who took the course of human events has ever been heard of since?

If the hollow of a log can be heard? If twelve inches make a foot how many will make a leg.

Do potatoes ever wear out, as we often hear of potato patches?

Will the Cape of Good Hope fit a fashionable lady?

THE OSHKOSH AND GREEN BAY BOATS—Friend White, the agent of the Oshkosh & Green Bay line of boats, informs us that the Green Bay City left Menasha for Green Bay on Wednesday last, and the Pointon City is ready to commence trips, and that both of these boats will, probably, arrive here to-day. The ice in Lake Winnebago has nearly vanished, and by next Monday navigation will be unobstructed.—Oshkosh Courier.

GOING TO IDAHO.—Mr. Wm. Bristols and Bro. are perfecting their arrangements for the overland trip to Idaho. They go with ox teams and will carry all their provisions for the trip, and enough to last some time after arriving at the mines. They are equal to the undertaking. They start next month.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

AWAY FOR IDAHO.—Six teams with about twenty horses passed through this place yesterday on their way to Idaho.—We noticed in most of the wagons the smiling faces of well-dressed cleanly children.

Some of our own citizens are preparing in hot haste for the same destination and will start either to-day or to-morrow.—Columbus (Wis) Journal.

RAFTS COMING DOWN.—On Tuesday last the first raft of the season from the Wisconsin pineries, passed by this town. This is some later, we believe, than usual. We are informed that an unusual large quantity of lumber will be run this season.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

GOOD SYRUPS and Molasses, ADAMS, Opposite Hyatt House.

LOCAL MATTERS BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported Expressly for the Gazette.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 24.—The steamer Moonlight has arrived from Newbern. No news of importance. The powder mills at Raleigh, North Carolina, exploded on the 5th, killing several persons.
 General Wm. P. White of Georgetown, South Carolina, was assassinated by his own men.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—House.—The House went into committee of the whole on the internal revenue bill. An amendment was offered, which was rejected, imposing a tax of 4 per cent, instead of 2 1/2 on gains, profits and income, which shall be deducted from the interest notes, bonds, or securities of U. S. Military offered another amendment which was adopted, that incomes derived from the interest of note, bond or other securities of the United States, shall be included in the estimate of income under this section which places the duty at 5 per cent on all over six hundred dollars.
 SENATE.—Hale introduced a bill to amend an act to promote efficiency of the navy was referred to naval committee. Wilson submitted the resolution for appropriating seventy-five millions for pay and subsistence of the militia to be called out by the President. Referred to military committee. House bill to establish postal money order system taken up.

FROM ARKANSAS.

St. Louis, April 26.—Little Rock dates say Mr. Allis of Jefferson Co. is elected speaker of the Arkansas legislature. Mr. Carson, member of the house and recently captured by guerrillas, and escaped, has arrived at Little Rock. The legislature will immediately provide for the organization of State Militia, raising revenue and adopt measures to render it impossible for rebels to grasp the reins of government.

FROM RED RIVER.

CAIRO, April 25.—Among the Western troops in the hottest of the recent battles on Red River were the 13th, 7th, 18th and 11th Illinois, the 14th and 15th Iowa, and the 23d Wisconsin. Some of these regiments suffered heavily.
 Wounded men in hospital at Mound City declare that our Quartermaster at Fort Pillow, after the surrender, was nailed to the side of a building by the rebel savages, and burned to death. Adjutant Learning was shot after the surrender. His life was saved only by giving a Masonic sign to a rebel surgeon. His sister, Mrs. B. F. Taylor, of Chicago, is attending him. He is recovering, though his wound is serious.
 Wade and Guich of the committee on the conduct of the War, arrived at Cairo on the 21st to investigate the Fort Pillow massacre. Generals Hulbert, Cheatham and Leggett are also there.
 Nearly 2000 bales of cotton arrived at Cairo on the 22d, about 1000 of it for Cincinnati, 400 for Louisville and 280 for Evansville.

FROM WEST TENNESSEE.

St. Louis, April 26th.—Memphis dates of the 22d states Forrest's entire forces moving toward Alabama, followed by Grierson. Pold is said to be marching with Forrests, he will probably join on the morning of the 21st. Grierson's cavalry came upon some of Forrest's troops near Hudsonville, Miss. A sharp fight ensued, the rebels retreating in the direction of Jackson, passing through Lagrange. A number of prisoners, horses, mules and wagons were captured and taken to Memphis. Cotton market firm. Holders keeping back for higher prices. Receipt 100 bales. Prices range from 64 to 67. Steamer Idaho came in collision with a gunboat and sunk at Paducah on Friday, she can be raised. About 100 Guerillas burned a large lot of wood near Barfield Point on Friday, and captured a number of citizens of Brownsville.

FURTHER FROM NEWBERN.

NEWBERN, N. C., April 22, 1864.—The battle which had been going on at Plymouth from Sunday, 16th to the 20th, resulted in the capturing of the city by the enemy on Wednesday noon, including Gen. Wessell and his forces of 1,500 men.
 The army obtained possession of the town at 8 o'clock in the morning. Gen. Wessell and his troops retired into Fort William and held out until noon, repulsing the enemy in nine desperate assaults, whose loss is 1,700, while our loss is slight. Gen. Wessell, who gained such distinction in the Seven Days' fight before Richmond, has made in the siege most brave resistance with his little band of veterans.
 Several weeks since he called for 5,000 men, stating in a most solemn manner that it would be impossible to hold the city with a less number.
 It is reported that the enemy has left Plymouth and is now moving on Washington; also on this city.
 The rebel ram Albatross, on the Neuse, has, it is ascertained, moved towards Newbern, and is expected to make an attack in a day or two.
 Gunboats and reinforcements are immediately required here and at Washington. Two companies belonging to the 2d North Carolina (Union) volunteers were among the captured at Plymouth, most of whom were taken out and shot by the enemy after our forces had surrendered.
 All the negroes found in uniform were also shot.
 The funeral of Com. Flessler takes place to-morrow.
 The rebel ram at Plymouth which came down the Roanoke, is expected to not in concert with the other rams in the attack on Washington and Newbern. She carries three small guns and one 64-pounder. With the aid of a few gunboats these rams could be readily run down as their sea-going qualities are bad. Under the cover of night the ram at Plymouth swamped two of our gunboats, but it is not expected she will attack any respectable number of gunboats in the day time.

COAL.—I have made permanent arrangements with Mr. Robert Law of Chicago, agent of several of the most extensive coal mines in the United States, and much the largest coal dealer in the northwest, to furnish a full supply of the best qualities of coal for Janesville and vicinity. In the course of a short time I shall be ready to make contracts for any amount at the lowest possible figures.

TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1884.

ROYALTY IN ENGLAND.—The London correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says: "It is astonishing to the American to find how completely the Royal department of England has been reduced to a penny. The question what the Queen or any of her family thinks of is one more thought of, and if asked by a foreigner, raises a smile. It must be said that the Court is simply a subject of gossip. And such gossip! That the Queen is weak-minded—that she drinks too much—that she is about to abdicate—that she is about to marry again—all these, I assure you, are circulated in good society from day to day, and at this moment each of the above reports has firm believers."

ILLINOIS CORN.—In 1860 Illinois raised one hundred and fifteen million bushels of corn. If this were placed in cars, three hundred bushels in a car, it would make a train of two thousand three hundred and twenty-five miles long; and allowing twenty-five cars to a locomotive, it would take fourteen thousand three hundred and seventy locomotives to draw it.

The Opinions of the Fathers.

The proposition now before Congress to amend the constitution of the United States so as to abolish slavery at once and forever, meets with more serious opposition than one would suppose could be possible, after the terrible experience we have had as a nation with this blighting curse. It has carried us to the verge of ruin, and has been a standing cause of quarrel and contention for so many years, and is now leading the nation down into the valley and shadow of death itself, that one unacquainted with the strange infatuation that has seized upon the public mind in relation to this scourge, would believe that the first opportunity presenting itself would be gladly embraced by the American people to rid themselves of that which all agree is the direst evil. But not so. We have ever had among us a set of pro-slavery abolitionists who, while freely acknowledging that slavery was a great crime against God and humanity and ought to be abolished, still insisted that it should be done constitutionally—that the "compromises," as they loved to call them, of that instrument should be regarded, and the South be entitled to all the benefits of that sacred compact. They said, "we are as much opposed to the institution of slavery as you possibly can be, and would as gladly see it abolished; but this is a government founded upon concessions; our fathers laid its foundation stones in a spirit of conciliation and compromise, and provided remedies for all its evils in the written constitution which they have given us. Only stick to the doctrine of the fathers, abolish slavery by a constitutional method, and we are with you."

This is what they say, and it may not be amiss to recur to first principles—at this time when the doctrine of the fathers, at this time when there is a proposition hanging fire in the House of Representatives to do the very thing that those constitutional worshippers are so anxious to have done, i. e., abolish slavery in a constitutional way.

What was the opinion of the founders of the Government in relation to the institution of chattel slavery, as they found it existing in the colonies at the time they undertook to lay the foundations of a new empire? How did their theory of a Republican government comport with that of the men of to-day who are striving, amid scenes of direst blood and carnage, to establish a government in the southern portion of this Union? The historic men of the revolution, even those who were residents of slave holding States and thoroughly identified by education and interest with the institution, had not embraced the pernicious dogmas of Davis and Stephens in relation to the enslavement of men. Their patriotic and humane souls revolted from the idea that a Democratic people, imbued with the great principles of liberty, could consistently practice a system of chattelhood in which the most ungovernable passions of gain and lust have their birth. No one of the founders of our Republic loved it, or was in favor of such legislation as would foster and continue it. All spoke of it as a wrong and a cruel outrage upon black and white. James Monroe, in a speech in the Virginia Convention, said: "We have found that this evil (slavery) has preyed upon the very vitals of the Union, and has been prejudicial to all the States in which it has existed." "It is among the first wishes of my heart," says the great and good Washington, "to see some plan adopted by which slavery in this country may be abolished by law." Even in the State of South Carolina, that has been so prolific of traitors in later years, her eminent men of 1776, her MINDLETONS, GARDENERS and RUTLEDGES were the founders of an anti-slavery association. Henry Laurens wrote to his son that he "abhorred slavery." And with that thrilling import comes to us now in these days of terrible agony and travail, the prophetic words of Jefferson. "We must wait," he writes, "with patience, the workings of an overruling Providence, and hope that it is preparing the deliverance of these our suffering brethren. When the measure of their tears shall be full, when their groans shall have involved heaven itself in darkness, doubtless a God of Justice will awaken to their distress, and by diffusing light and liberality among their oppressors, or, at length, by his exterminating thunder, make manifest his attention to the things of this world, and that they are not left to the guidance of a blind fatuity."

Read in the light of present events, this language has almost the pregnant force of prophecy, and if any man can still hesitate how his influence should be exerted in this respect, let us beseech him to follow the sound and patriotic advice of the Father of his country who wrote to Mr. Robert Morris in 1786: "There is not a man living who wishes more sincerely than I do to see a plan adopted for the abolition of slavery; but there is only one proper and effectual mode by which it can be accomplished, and that is by legislative authority; and this, so far as my suffrage will go, shall not be wanting."

"This proper and effectual mode," has already passed the Senate of the United States, and is now before our representatives in the popular branch of the national legislature. It is the constitutional method by which Washington desired to see the great evil consummated, and it is that safe, peaceable and loyal mode which the conservative press of the people have always promised should not want their adhesion and support whenever it was properly presented to the country. It is such a measure as Washington and Jefferson and Madison would vote for if they occupied seats in the Congress of the United States to-day. It is not only a safe measure but it is slow enough to keep it out of the category of hasty and inconsiderate legislation. It does not become an amendment to the constitution until it is adopted by a two-thirds vote and then ratified by three-fourths of the States by their Legislatures. Once through the House by a two-thirds vote, its chances are thus summed up by an exchange:

"There are at this time thirty-five States in the Union; Colorado, Nebraska and Nevada are knocking at the door for admission, which will probably be granted them by the present Congress. This would make thirty-eight States, of which the votes of three-fourths, or twenty-nine would be needed for a ratification. It is almost certain that of the twenty-five distinctly loyal States, all but New Jersey and Kentucky will vote for the amendment. Besides those, we may count on Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, and the three new States we have mentioned, which would give us twenty-nine, and with Tennessee, thirty. It is thus highly probable that the requisite and constitutional majority of States will vote for the amendment, if Congress gives them opportunity."

Letter from the Thirtieth.

COLUMBUS, KY., April 20th, 1864. Suffering from a severe attack of the colic, I seize my quill pen, and in the hope of gaining relief. A few days ago I left your city for the front a second time, and after a quick run to Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville and Nashville, I brought up suddenly in the camp of the old 13th among old friends and fellow "sojers." The right wing is on the south side of the river under command of Lieut. Col. Chapman picking the "pikes," while the left is on the other side in Edgfield under command of Col. Lyon, and doing guard duty on the trains between Nashville and Louisville. It looks very much as though the regiment was settled for its summer's work, and although they may not win glory on the bloody field, they are doubtless "booked" for a burdensome campaign. The men are on duty every second or third day regularly, and hardly a corporal's guard can be mustered in camp any day after the "details" go out, yet the men are in usual health. The season is unusually backward as far as I can learn, the peach trees being in full bloom, whereas they should have dropped their blossoms long since.

It would almost pay a civilian, unacquainted with the "circumstances and pomp of war," to make a journey to Nashville to see what it takes to make up an army and keep it in the field. It is said that there never was so large a depot of Military supplies before in the world, as at that place. Stores of every description are gathered there to such an extent that one can only estimate them by the acres—by the amount of land they cover, and they are continually being received by river and forwarded by rail.

Clarksville and Fort Donelson are garrisoned by the 88d Illinois Volunteers, which made such a splendid fight at the latter place over a year since. This regiment has been twenty months at one post, ever since they entered the service, and longer than any other regiment has remained stationary during the war.

This town is just recovering from a very severe "scare," during which citizens have been "pressed" into Uncle Sam's service to do fatigue duty on the defenses, which are now in the finest condition and bristling with "deep-throated, loud-mouthed," avengers. Twenty-five hundred men here can hold the post against as many thousand attacking. If ever Forrest attempts to capture Columbus, he will be worse whipped than ever before in his life, although it seems impossible since his repulse last year at Fort Donelson and this year at Paducah.

What Forrest has accomplished of late proves to me that the scatteration policy of the "powers that be" is just at an end. There are only those points of importance; the Potomac, Chattanooga and the Red River, and all else must succumb to their needs. It seems as though we might now reasonably expect success, for while Banks pays his respects to the Trans-Mississippi Department, Sherman will attend to the Chattanooga district, and Grant, we trust, will organize victory as well as the Army of the Potomac.

Anecdote of a Daughter of Cassius M. Clay.

A contributor sent the following narrative to the Brooklyn Union: Morgan's command was encamped near by, when a hard-looking customer, seated on the back of a sorry-looking nag, might have been seen entering the gateway of an extensive domain in Kentucky. He shambled off in great haste to a large barn standing at a little distance from a spacious mansion. The horse and rider had nearly reached the stable door when the Juno-like figure of a young lady tripped along to the end of a piazza and beckoned him to return. At this juncture I suspect the rogue began to feel that he had gotten himself into a scrape. He half turned on his saddle, and for a moment scrutinized the irate beauty; then lowering his head and ruminating a minute, he turned his horse around and rode back. Our two horsemen had by this time reached the gate, and were now within hearing distance of the following piquant colloquy:

"What are you doing here?" "Well, Miss, you see my horse is fagged out, and I am bound to have 'an' other."

"It so happens that I am left alone this morning, and I protest against it. Surely you are too good a soldier to disregard the remonstrance of a lady."

"Sorry, Miss, but it can't be helped. If you like I'll leave you mine in place of yours."

"No you will not." "At this stage of the proceedings the unrelenting savage turned sharply away and rode off in quest of his booty, and my young friend and his companion approached the lady, with lowering brow and compressed lips."

"She stood a moment as a Pythianess stands on her tripod, agonized and full of lightning, gazed four minutes."

lawn to a partition fence, drew one of the pistols, and as her arm rested for a moment on the topmost rail, the ominous "click" was heard. "It has a queer quick jar upon the ear. The cocking of a pistol, when you know a moment's time will bring the sight to bear upon your person, twinges your ears, or so." All timid creatures become paralyzed when the ear catches a very threatening sound. So it must have been with the valiant transgressor. Before the leaden messenger had sped its way to meet him, he had reined up short, and stood stock still before the assailant. She then took deliberate aim, and fired, and the ball struck his cap, fair in front, and sent it flying. You may be sure, added my youthful narrator, the scamp did not tarry long after that. He scampered off, sans horse, sans cap. The heroine of this little story was the daughter of the Hon. Cassius M. Clay.

From Bridgeport to Chattanooga.

(Correspondence to the Chicago Journal.) The railroad route from Bridgeport to Chattanooga is one of the wildest and most picturesque on the continent. You make straight at the "solid mountain," but creep through a drift and keep on; you swing around a curve and hang over a gorge, but you play "the devil on two wheels," and pass it; you run like a mouse along a narrow shelf high up the rocky wall, the bewildered Tennessee far beneath, winding its way and that to escape from the enchanted mountains. "It flashes out upon you here, curved like a cimeter; it ties the hills up there with love-knots of ground ribbon. The sky linerises and falls around you like a heavy sea; black heaps of coal high up the mountains, look like blots on this roughest of pages in Nature's 'writing-book.' The dark cedars counterpoint deep shadows. You go through a stone gateway of the Lord's building, and a deep valley is under your feet. You look far across to the other side. Will the train run straight out into mid air? Will it take wings and fly? It is gliding cautiously out upon the bridge at Falling Water; the boys in blue far down look like drops of indigo; you are safe over, and you thank God and take courage. You pass the ruins of rebel camps; the huts are gone, but the swallows' nests free places remain, and the hillside seem strewn with old, rusty honey-combs. And all along the rugged way, at every station, bridge, ravine, are ride-pits and earthworks, the rude signature rebellion has compelled; grim War's his 't mark; and all along, those journey-men of ours, grouped to see the train go by, the train, their one, long, slender link with the dear old homes of the North. The black throats of cannon gaze at you over the tops of their kennels, in unexpected places. The tines the drummer beats all shattered on the crags around, come tumbling back upon the player's head.

So, through these grand and everlasting halls we made our way, and when the morning walked to us, and upon the top of night, and stepped from height to height, and pines took fire and cliffs of gray were pinked, it seemed a mighty minister, and did not wonder that God gave the law from Sinai; that the beatitudes were shed, like Hermon's dew, from a mountain; that the noblest utterance of all time—save God's first word on record, "LIGHT BE!"—should have been the sermon on the Mount.

Sometimes the valleys wended into gleams; garden plants beneath us looked like the squares of a checker-board, and clusters of poor dwellings seemed having their morning gossip together; now and then, a house was perched high up the mountain, and buzzards, graceful nowhere except in the air, were librating, rocking on their broad wing far below it. A glorious ploughman may make of it. At last, threading a wooded gorge, a tunnel we began to get into broader ground and the Tennessee bears us company. Six miles from the Hawk's Nest, we pass the clustered villages of General Ward's brigade—the 103 Illinois is there, and has one of the most beautiful, and tastefully adorned camps I ever saw. Triumphant arches of evergreens, broad, clean avenues, rustic seats—altogether it would make an exquisite page for some new edition of Rural Architecture. We wind around the angle of the mountain wall of Lookout; camps glittering on the hills everywhere, in the morning sun, tumuli of red earth, with sentinels pacing to and fro, regiments checking the low grounds, engines backing and filling, great store-houses showing in their fresh-planned walls, forts dumb but not dead, the whole landscape alive with crowds and campfires, and there in the middle of it all, like a rusty hatchet buried in the live oak that grew around it, lies—CHATTANOOGA.

LARGE FEET.—A friend of ours, visiting a neighbor, found him disabled from having a horse step upon his foot. Hobbling out of the stable, the sufferer explained how it happened:

"I was standing here," said he, "and the horse brought his foot right down on mine."

"Our friend looked at the injured member, which was of the No. 14 pattern, and said, very quietly, 'Well, the horse must step somewhere.'"

COUGHS AND COLDS.
The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often not speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Trochee," or Lozenges, let the Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually ward off. Positive Sufferers and Smokers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken on occasion required.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.
This is the most delightful and extraordinary article ever discovered. It changes the sun-burnt face and hands to a "pearly skin," texture of ravishing beauty, imparting the marble purity of youth and the delicate appearance so inviting in the city ball of fashion. It removes tan, freckles, pimples, and roughness from the skin, leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and smooth. It contains no material injurious to the skin. Patronized by Actresses and Opera Singers. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere.
